

9 July 1980

THINK PIECE

Consider an annual two-day conclave for retired Agency personnel: one day of briefings; half-day of questions and answers with leading Agency people; half-day of updating their biographies and locator information so that they can be kept in the computer catalog for recall if needed.